BILLET DESCRIPTION: Duties include providing legal advice in direct support to CDRUSCENTCOM, a four star command and the USCENTCOM staff as assigned by the CENTCOM Staff Judge Advocate. The CENTCOM Judge Advocate section (CCJA) provides full spectrum legal support for all current combat operations in the CENTCOM Area of Responsibility (AOR), to include Iraq, Syria, Afghanistan, and Yemen, counter-terrorism operations as well planning efforts. The billet requires superior judgment and strong communication skills to coordinate with and support CONUS-based and forward-deployed subordinate command and supporting command/unit legal offices involved in on-going operations within the USCENTCOM AOR as well other U.S. Government Agency legal offices to include Legal Counsel for the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Office of General Counsel. The billet requires the member have a broad range of experiences and depth to include operational and international law, fiscal law and contracting, administrative law, and military justice. Duties will be assigned based upon needs of the office, expertise, complexity of the problem and time available to work the task to completion. A TS/SCI clearance is required.

APPLICATION: To apply for the billet, forward your Reserve Qualification Summary (RQS), Professional and Personal Summary (ProSum), and photo to <JAD_IMA@usmc.mil> by the application deadline. Combine all three requested documents into one PDF. If sending from a personal email, please omit personally identifying information from both the RQS and ProSum. Specifically, omit the date of rank, social security number, and street address. If you do not have a current official photo, a locally taken digital photo in service "C" uniform, with current height/weight annotated, will be accepted. A photo is considered current if it is taken within one year from the application deadline.

The RQS form and sample ProSum are available at:
