

Captain Morris was commissioned in 2008 after graduating from The College of the Holy Cross with a bachelor's degree in chemistry. He was assigned to The Basic School where he was selected to serve as an Infantry Officer. His first tour of duty was with First Battalion, First Marines in Camp Pendleton, CA where he served as a Weapons Platoon Commander, Rifle Company Executive Officer, and Company Joint Terminal Attack Controller (JTAC) during the Battalion's deployment on the 13th Marine Expeditionary Unit (MEU) during the Arab Spring. He later was the Weapons Company Executive Officer and Company JTAC during a subsequent deployment to Afghanistan for Operation Enduring Freedom (OEF). He most recently completed the Maneuver Captain's Career Course (MCCC) at Fort Benning, Georgia where he was a distinguished graduate on the Commandant's List.