

Captain Angela M. Nelson is a graduate of the University of South Florida with a degree in International Relations and is currently serving as an CY14 Congressional Fellow. Commissioned in 2004 she was assigned as a Communications Officer. While assigned to 3rd FSSG she served as a Platoon Commander, Regimental S6, Battalion S6, and Lioness Officer. While serving as a BN S6 and Lioness she deployed to Operation Iraqi Freedom. Upon return from OIF she served as a Faculty Advisor and Instructor at Communications Officer School. During this time she deployed to the Republic of Georgia as a Military Advisor to the Georgian Army. While assigned to 2d Marine Aircraft Wing she served as a Squadron Operations Officer, Company Commander, and Staff Secretary to General Jon Davis and General Glenn Walters. She deployed to Operation Enduring Freedom and is a graduate of Expeditionary Warfare School and Weapons and Tactics Course.