

Gunnery Sergeant Dean is a Ground Communications Technician that has been in the Marine Corps for 16 years. He transferred to the Wounded Warrior Congressional Fellowship Program from 1st Maintenance Battalion in Camp Pendleton, California where he served as Company Gunnery Sergeant and Company First Sergeant for the last 3 years. GySgt Dean has previous experience as a Marine Corps Martial Arts Instructor Trainer, Navy Drug Abuse Counselor, MACG-48 Color Sergeant, Casualty Assistance Call Officer, and as the funeral honors coordinator for the Chicago area while serving on Inspector and Instructor duty. He has extensive volunteer time as an Emergency Medical Technician on a rescue squad in Northern Virginia. GySgt Dean was combat wounded while serving with 1st Battalion, 1st Marines in Al Karmah, Iraq in 2006. He is a single parent of 3 boys ages 14, 11, and 7.