Billet Description:

U.S. Marine Corps Forces, Pacific (MARFORPAC) is the Marine Corps Component of U.S. Indo-Pacific Command and located aboard Camp H.M. Smith, HI. MARFORPAC’s Area of Responsibility includes MARFORPAC Headquarters, I MEF, III MEF, and U.S. Marine Corps Forces, Korea. The Staff Judge Advocate (SJA) serves as the Command’s primary legal advisor and is a special staff officer reporting directly to the Commander, MARFORPAC. The MARFORPAC Office of the Staff Judge Advocate (OSJA) furnishes legal advice to the Commander, subordinate commanders, and the Headquarters Staff. This entails critical analysis and advice relating to the following areas: Military Justice, Operational Law, Fiscal Law, Government Ethics, Investigations, Operational/International Law, Freedom of Information Act, and other matters as directed. The SJA also provides liaison with subordinate Command SJAs, the Indo-Pacific Command SJA, and Headquarters Marine Corps Judge Advocates Division, as required. In the absence of the MARFORPAC SJA, the Reserve SJA will assume the duties of the MARFORPAC SJA, otherwise he/she will augment the staff of the OSJA.

The MARFORPAC Office of the Staff Judge Advocate is normally staffed with three active-duty and three reserve Judge Advocates, along with a civilian attorney and support staff. Scheduling periods of duty for Marines in the MARFORPAC IMA detachment is usually flexible and scheduled to coincide with exercises and/or periods of high personnel demand. Annual FY duty consists of 48 drill periods and a two week annual training period (At). These are usually completed in two or more trips to Camp H.M. Smith a year, funded by a split AT (6-7 days each).
