JFA – Reserve Adjunct Faculty, US Naval Academy

Billet: Res. Adjunct Faculty, USNA
Type: IMA
Home Training Center: Arlington, VA
Area of Operations: Annapolis, MD
Grade: O4-O5
PMOS: 4402
Start Date: December 2021
BIC: MS511500138
Application Deadline: Immediately

Billet Description: Serves as the reserve counterpart to the active duty Marine Corps Judge Advocates assigned as Assistant Professors in the Leadership Education and Development (LEAD) Division at the United States Naval Academy. Delivers live instruction at least four times per month (or as otherwise directed by USNA AD counterparts) to USNA midshipmen. The course is required USNA curriculum, “Law for the Junior Officer (NL-400),” which comprises military justice, administrative law, and operational law. While the selected officer may coordinate which of two sessions to deliver with the USNA AD counterparts, the sessions must occur between either 0755-0845 or 1530-1620. Provides timely feedback on all written assignments to maximize learning and student engagement, using the Blackboard learning management system. Leads and mentors rising Navy ensigns and Marine Corps second lieutenants, leveraging military and civilian leadership and legal experience. Supplements and amplifies course material by integrating relevant external material and appropriate anecdotes that highlight the leadership, legal, and ethical elements as they pertain to course curriculum and effective service in the Navy and Marine Corps. Participates in continuous evaluation and improvement of instructional material to integrate best and promising learning practices for midshipmen. Maintains substantive proficiency and currency in military justice, administrative law, and operational law, including developments and changes in the relevant cases, statutes, and instructions. The selected candidate must be available to teach at least four hours per month. Opportunities also exist for additional teaching, including substitute teaching as needed. All applicants must live within appropriate driving distance of Annapolis, MD. Candidates should have teaching experience, a proven record of academic success, and be able to set the example for future Naval Officers. This billet requires the selected officer to drill during the academic year (Spring semester is 11 Jan 2022 to 13 May 2022) Adjuncts are not required to teach summer school. Finally, the selected officer must be approved by the Academic Dean/Provost of the U.S. Naval Academy prior to appointment.

Application Process: To apply for this billet, please forward your Reserve Qualification Summary (RQS), Professional Summary (ProSum), and an up-to-dated promotion photo to JAD_IMA@usmc.mil by the application deadline. Do not submit any additional documents. Please combine all three documents into one PDF. Do not copy anyone on your submission.

POC for more information: LT (USN) Jonathan Todd, Law Section Head at jtodd@usna.edu or Capt (USMC) Benjamin Rothchild at jrothchi@usna.edu.