

Membership

Pre the AFGE Constitution

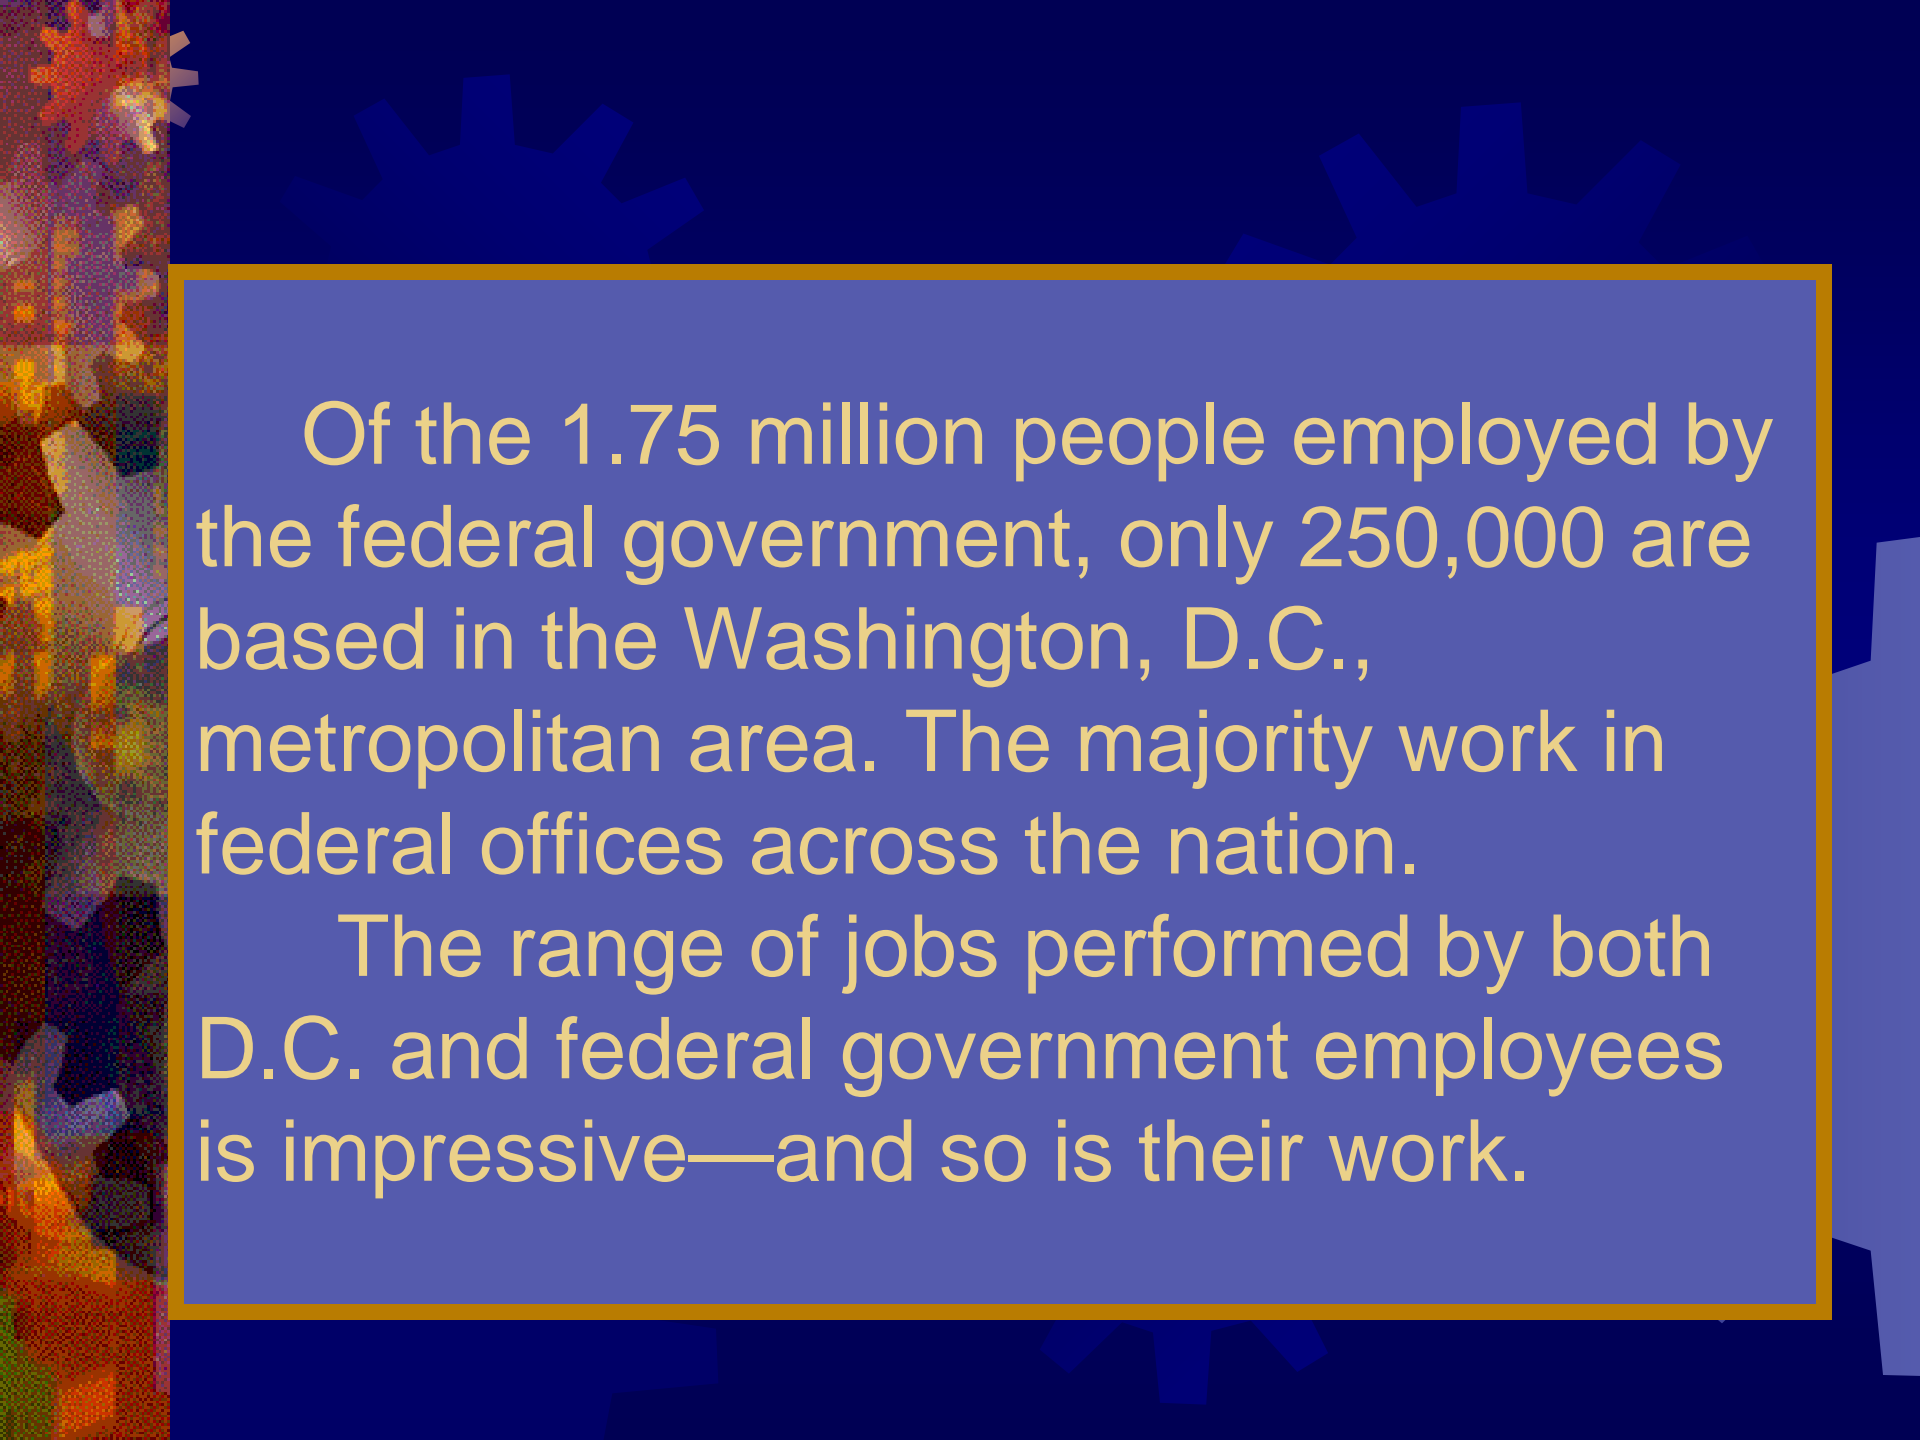

Article III section 1(b)

All employees of the United States Government and any of its instrumentalities of whatever nature, including military personnel of the armed forces, and of the District of Columbia, and all other persons providing their services indirectly to the United States Government are eligible for membership in the Federation.

Local 1786 Union office is located behind Little Hall in building 1002.

The National Union office is headquartered in Washington, D.C., on 80 F Street and divided into 12 geographical districts consisting of some 1,100 locals.

Of the 1.75 million people employed by the federal government, only 250,000 are based in the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area. The majority work in federal offices across the nation.

The range of jobs performed by both D.C. and federal government employees is impressive—and so is their work.

The American Federation of Government Employees (AFGE) Is the Largest Federal Employee Union Representing:

- Department of Veterans Affairs

- Social Security Administration

- Department of Defense

- Department of Justice

Workers in Virtually All Functions of Government at Every Federal Agency Depend Upon AFGE for Legal Representation, Legislative Advocacy, Technical Expertise and Informational Services.

AFGE takes seriously its responsibility ensuring that government workers are treated fairly.

AFGE has a large occupational diversity:

Environmentalists, Fire Fighters, Nurses
Truck Drivers, Lawyers, Plumbers, Janitors, Secretaries, Laborers, Equipment Operators
and many, many more.....

We represent YOU!!

The union supports a meaningful transformation of the federal workplace to improve the way services and benefits are delivered to the American public.

AFGE is in the middle of every battle involving the well-being of federal and D.C. employees and their families. We lobby the White House, work in agencies, litigate in court and lobby in the halls of Congress. AFGE is all about producing results that positively affect our members' lives.

Membership has it's Benefits:

College Financing, Scholarships,
Online Education and Degree Program
AFGE Online Training Program
Computer Purchase Program, Internet Service
Health Club Discounts, Health Savings Program
Flower Discounts, Entertainment Discounts
Worldwide Vacation Tours, Cruise Ship Discounts
Car Rental Discounts, Auto Buying Service
Tire and Automotive Service Discounts
Auto Insurance, Auto Club, and much, much more....

AFGE is proud to make America work.

More Benefits BondRewards:

Enroll in BondRewards Federation and buy online to earn BondDollars which you can redeem for U.S. Savings Bonds, at the following locations:

1-800=Flowers, Avon.com, Dell/Home
Disney Store.com, Home Depot, Macy's
NASCAR.com, PETCO, RadioShack.com
Staples, Target, JewelryWeb.com
Book a Flight, Reserve a Hotel
Book a Vacation or take a cruise.

Earn U.S. Savings Bonds to save for your future

- ☀ Marine Corps Base Quantico is represented by the Officers and Stewards of Local 1786. Located in building 1002 behind Little Hall.
- ☀ President - Ray Schiebel.
- ☀ Vice President – Steve Di Egidio.
- ☀ 2nd VP Vacant
- ☀ Sec – Treasurer – Ron Burnett
- ☀ Chief Steward – Steve DiEgidio.
- ☀ The Locals phone number is 703—784-3019.
- ☀ Regular monthly meetings are held in building 1002 here on Base, the second Monday of every month at 5 P.M.

The Marine Corps Council (C 240) represents

Local 429, MCRD, Parris Island, S.C.

Local 1209, MCB, Hawaii

Local 1482, MCLB, Barstow, CA

Local 1786, MCB, Quantico, VA

Local 1881, MCRD, San Diego, CA

Local 1951, MCAS, Beaufort, S.C.

Local 2018, MCAGCC, 29 Palms, CA

Local 2065, MCB, Camp Lejeune, N.C.

Local 2317, MCLB, Albany, GA

Local 2904, MCRSC, Kansas City, MO

New Union Contract Dated October 2005

Go to

www.manpower.usmc.mil

open Civilian Marines

open Civilian Workforce Management

on the right side you'll find

HQ USMC MLA 2005