On February 4, 2021, Secretary of Defense Lloyd J. Austin III signed a memo that, effective immediately, directs all individuals on military installations and all individuals performing official duties on behalf of the Department from any location other than the individual’s home, including outdoor shared spaces, to wear masks in accordance with the most current Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) guidelines.

Individuals must wear masks continuously while on military installations except:

1. when an individual is alone in an office with floor-to-ceiling walls with a closed door;
2. for brief periods of time when eating and drinking while maintaining distancing in accordance with CDC guidelines and instructions from commanders and supervisors;
3. when the mask is required to be lowered briefly for identification or security purposes;
4. when necessary to reasonably accommodate an individual with a disability.

Individuals must consistently wear a mask that covers the nose and mouth and that comports with all current guidance from the CDC and the Occupational Safety and Health Administration.

Categorical or case-by-case exceptions to these requirements for Service members and their families in environments other than office spaces that are necessary for military readiness, that are related to living on a military installation, or that are related to mask wearing by children (so long as such exceptions are consistent with CDC guidelines for mask wearing by children) may be granted in writing by Department of Defense (DoD) Component heads and should include appropriate alternative safeguards whenever feasible, such as additional physical distancing measures or additional testing consistent with DOD testing protocols.

DoD Components will comply with applicable labor relations obligations to the extent such obligations do not conflict with the agency's ability to conduct operations during this emergency.

The memo can be found here: https://media.defense.gov/2021/Feb/04/2002576265/-1/-1/1/DOD-ANNOUNCES-USE-OF-MASKS-AND-OTHER-PUBLIC-HEALTH-MEASURES.PDF

Center for Disease Control and Prevention Guide to Masks

The Center for Disease Control and Prevention recommends that people wear masks in public settings, at events and gatherings, and anywhere they will be around other people. Effective February 2, 2021, masks are required on planes, buses, trains, and other forms of public transportation traveling into, within, or out of the United States and in U.S. transportation hubs such as airports and stations.

When selecting a mask, there are many choices. Here are some do’s and don’ts.

DO choose masks that
- Have two or more layers of washable, breathable fabric
- Completely cover your nose and mouth
- Fit snugly against the sides of your face and don’t have gaps
- Have a nose wire to prevent air from leaking out of the top of the mask

DO NOT choose masks that
- Are made of fabric that makes it hard to breathe, for example, vinyl
- Have exhalation valves or vents which allow virus particles to escape
- Are intended for healthcare workers, including N95 respirators

Wear your Mask Correctly
- Wash your hands or use hand sanitizer before putting on your mask.
- Put the mask over your nose and mouth and secure it under your chin.
- Fit the mask snugly against the sides of your face, slipping the loops over your ears or tying the strings behind your head.
- If you have to continually adjust your mask, it doesn’t fit properly, and you might need to find a different mask type or brand.
- Make sure you can breathe easily.

Look for
- Multiple layers of tightly woven, breathable fabric
- Nose wire
- Mask should block light when held up to bright light source
Are you and your family looking to get a COVID-19 vaccine near you? If so, you’ll soon have more options for where you can go to get it. As part of the ongoing response to COVID-19, the federal government has launched the Federal Retail Pharmacy Program for COVID-19 Vaccination. This new program is a collaboration between the federal government, states, territories, and 21 national pharmacies and independent pharmacy networks to increase access to the COVID-19 vaccine in the U.S.

“Vaccination is a critical step in protecting your health and slowing the spread of COVID-19,” said Colonel Markus Gmehlin, acting chief of the Pharmacy Operations Division at the Defense Health Agency. “This program will provide TRICARE beneficiaries with more opportunities to get vaccinated at a location near them.”

Here are some details about distribution and how you can get the vaccine with your TRICARE benefit.

How does the program work?

The Federal Retail Pharmacy Program will supply COVID-19 vaccines to retail pharmacies in phases. As part of the initial phase, 1 million doses of the COVID-19 vaccine will be sent to a select group of pharmacies. These pharmacies will then administer vaccinations to those who are eligible. Some pharmacies have already begun offering a limited amount of the vaccine through this program. Other pharmacies are set to begin offering doses soon. As stated by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), “As vaccine supply increases, more retail locations will be added.”

Will my local pharmacy offer the COVID-19 vaccine?

Pharmacies that are part of the Federal Retail Pharmacy Program may vary by state and territory. Pharmacies participating in the program may include TRICARE network pharmacies and non-network pharmacies. You can find a list of pharmacies that are currently participating in your area on the CDC website: https://www.cdc.gov/vaccines/covid-19/retail-pharmacy-program/participating-pharmacies.html.

How can I get the vaccine with my TRICARE benefit?

The availability of the vaccine may vary by location. If you’re a TRICARE beneficiary, you’ll eventually be able to get the COVID-19 vaccine at:

- Your local military hospital or clinic
- Local or state health department COVID-19 vaccination sites
- Your civilian provider
- Pharmacies participating in the Federal Retail Pharmacy Program

“At this stage of the program, the vaccine supply is limited,” said Gmehlin. “So, it’s important to make sure you contact your local pharmacy in advance to see if the vaccine is available and if you can schedule an appointment to receive it.”

There is no cost-share if you get the COVID-19 vaccine at a TRICARE network pharmacy.

Planning to get the vaccine at a non-network pharmacy? There’s no cost for the COVID-19 vaccine itself. Keep in mind, TRICARE doesn’t cover other vaccines and most prescription drugs at non-network pharmacies.

Remember, there may be a cost based on your health plan for an office visit with a provider, or if you need follow-on care.
If you’re eligible for TRICARE, you can get the COVID-19 vaccine at any military hospital or clinic that offers it. This is true even if you don’t get your routine care there. Phase 1A of the Department of Defense (DoD) COVID-19 vaccination plan is currently underway at many military hospitals, clinics, and DoD installations. This phase includes vaccinating health care workers, first responders, and residents of Armed Forces Retirement Homes. Keep in mind, some military hospitals and clinics may be in different phases of the vaccination plan. So, make sure you check first to see if the vaccine is available at your location.

TRICARE is committed to supporting you and your health. Stay up to date on vaccine guidance through the TRICARE and Military Health System websites. You can also check with your local health department and talk to your health care provider about when you may qualify to receive the vaccine as well as where you can go to get vaccinated. The Federal Retail Pharmacy Program for COVID-19 Vaccination is the latest of several resources introduced to help you and your family.

Visit www.cdc.gov or the TRICARE FAQs for current COVID-19 information.

Understanding the Federal Retail Pharmacy Program For Covid-19 Vaccination

The Federal Retail Pharmacy Program for COVID-19 Vaccination is a collaboration between the federal government, states and territories, and 21 national pharmacy partners and independent pharmacy networks to increase access to COVID-19 vaccination across the United States. This program is one component of the Federal government’s strategy to expand access to vaccines for the American public. The program is being implemented incrementally based on the available vaccine supply, with select retail pharmacy locations providing COVID-19 vaccine to eligible individuals. As vaccine availability increases over time, the program will expand to ultimately include all 40,000+ pharmacies.

Why Pharmacies?
Pharmacists are highly trusted and trained healthcare providers who have direct access to and knowledge of their patient populations. Pharmacists are trained to counsel patients, administer vaccine, and provide vaccine education, and pharmacies are readily accessible in communities – with most Americans living within five miles of a pharmacy. Recognizing this, the federal government made them a key part of its COVID-19 vaccination strategy. While the program will ultimately expand to include more than 40,000+ pharmacies, it is important to know that early on, when vaccine supply is still limited, many pharmacies may not have vaccine or may have very limited supply.

How it Works
As the program begins initial implementation, certain retail pharmacies nationwide are receiving limited COVID-19 vaccine supply directly from the federal government. They will use this supply to vaccinate state-selected priority groups at no cost.

- The program will begin with per capita allocations by each jurisdiction that will be divided among the selected pharmacy partners based on number of stores and reach. As the program expands and supply becomes more readily available, the allocation may be adjusted to reflect partner size (number of store locations nationwide), reach (percent of the total US population living within 5 miles of a store location), and ability to vaccinate (throughput).
- States and territories select which populations are eligible for vaccination through the program according to their vaccination plans. Individuals who are interested in getting vaccinated at their local pharmacy should call or check the pharmacy’s website to find out if they are eligible and if vaccine is available.
- Most pharmacy partners are using online scheduling systems to schedule vaccination visits for those eligible based on their limited available vaccine supply.

Program Benefits
As the program scales up to eventually include COVID-19 vaccination at all 40,000+ retail locations, it will:

- Make it easier for individuals to access free COVID-19 vaccine at a pharmacy in their community
- Improve vaccine uptake while decreasing the logistical and operations burden on state, local, and territorial health departments

Each partner plays a critical role in ensuring the success of the Federal Retail Pharmacy Program.

- Pharmacy partners will select retail locations to receive vaccine based on various factors, including equitable access, demand, supply, and market saturation.
- The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) is collaborating with states and territories to help ensure fair access to COVID-19 vaccine nationwide and is working with pharmacy partners to shift vaccine inventory as needed.

The program relies on a collaboration with public health (CDC and state, local, and territorial health departments) to encourage individuals to go to pharmacies and get vaccinated. As the program rolls out, intense community outreach will be critical to educate people about the importance of vaccination and where vaccines are available in the communities.

Retail pharmacies participating in the Federal Retail Pharmacy Program will vary by state and territory. Individuals who are interested in getting vaccinated at their local pharmacy should check the pharmacy’s website to find out if COVID-19 vaccine is available and if they are eligible for vaccination.

SERGEANT MAJOR OF THE MARINE CORPS

MEMORANDUM

SMMC The “New” Corps Memo 8 January 2021

SMMC MEMO 01-21

“Old breed? New breed? There’s not a damn bit of difference so long as it’s the Marine breed.” – Chesty Puller

The “New” Corps. Over the course of time there has been a tendency of the older generation of Marines to view the newer generations as not measuring up. Interestingly, those Marines were told the same thing when they were “boots”. Each line in the sand calls into question the ability of aspiring leaders to serve with as much honor, courage, and commitment as the last. These “lines in the sand” stretch from Iwo Jima, Chosin Reservoir, and Hue City all the way to Fallujah, Marjah, Sangin, and countless other battles. Like previous generations, this “New Corps” has made their own historic contributions to our legacy and proven their mettle in the crucible of combat.

I entered the Marine Corps in 1988 at the end of the Cold War and immediately learned the value of lessons passed on from one generation of Marines to the next. President Ronald Reagan was still in office and many of my instructors at Infantry Training Battalion were Vietnam veterans. When I arrived at my first duty station, many of my battalion’s leaders were also Vietnam Vets. While their tales of combat were inspiring, those warriors were skeptical of us and thought my generation was soft because we grew up in the 1980’s. Regardless of their personal feelings, and to their credit, those combat experienced leaders focused their efforts on training us to a high standard. Ultimately, my generation served together with many of them to achieve success in Desert Storm. They understood that giving the individual Marine challenging training, firm leadership, and instilling a disciplined approach to all tasks were essential if we were to be successful on the battlefield, regardless of how our generation was labeled.

As the Vietnam veterans began to leave the ranks, my generation assumed greater responsibility for training the next generation of Marines. Even though the number of combat veterans dwindled, those that went before had prepared us to take up their task. As I became a more seasoned NCO, my appreciation for the lessons I received from that earlier generation grew. I committed myself to sharing their experiences, as well as my own, with those I had the privilege to lead.

On September 11th, the world changed. At that moment, the majority of the Marine Corps had little practical combat experience. The question we asked was, did each Marine of the new generation have the grit, determination, and resolve to fight and win? We didn’t know for sure, just as the Vietnam generation could not be sure about me and my generation. Yet in both cases, leaders set a high standard and expected each Marine to not only meet it, but to exceed it.
Over the years I have experienced many new efforts designed to improve our Corps. Examples like the publication of Leading Marines and the stand-up of the Squad Leader Development Program illustrate the kinds of investments the Marine Corps has made over the decades in raising the performance of our most critical resource, the individual Marine. I see the implementation of talent management as the next logical adaptation in our approach to unlocking the potential in each Marine.

Talent management is an extension of our time-honored methods of bringing the best out of the Marines we lead. By developing the capacity for greater responsibility and passing on our lessons learned from one generation to the next we are ensuring our ability to fight and win in an era of great power competition.

I have learned from the very beginning of my service, that each preceding generation will be inherently critical and demanding of the next. They will relentlessly challenge their successors to be better and do better, in order to develop their warfighting spirit. Without fail, they will breed brilliance in the basics and perfection in warfighting skills. They will be ceaseless in their commitment to teaching, coaching, and mentoring their Marines. They will take seriously their responsibility to train their replacements because they know that one day they will leave the battlefield in the hands of those they have lead.

As the Commandant steers our Corps to meet the challenges of the future, we must focus on developing talent within our Corps. We must ensure those we trust to lead understand their role in forging the next iron links in the chain of Marine generations that stretches all the way back to 1775.

Semper Fidelis,

TROY E. BLACK

A Note From The Semper Fidelis Staff

Our team has received a number of letters, phone calls, and emails recently from retired Marines expressing frustration due to their rank or other personal information being reflected incorrectly on the Semper Fidelis newsletter address label. Here’s a little background information that we hope will explain the situation. For many years the Marine Corps, as well as all the other services, has been relying on the Defense Manpower Data Center (DMDC) to provide the most current and accurate information pertaining to retiree addresses. In April 2020, the DMDC decommissioned operations of the system platform that provided that information, the Retiree Address Finder (RAF), to the military services. Consequently, and in order to still provide retired Marines and survivors with important benefits information, we have had to rely upon the address information resident in the Marine Corps Total Forces System (MCTFS) in order to mail out the Semper Fidelis newsletter. This information isn’t nearly as current as what we previously received from DMDC, based on the frequency with which the DMDC information is updated, and the variety of sources that contribute to those updates (DEERS being one of those). Not all DoD systems share information, so MCTFS potentially will not have the most accurate information for retired Marines. Anytime a retired Marine contacts our office with updates to their personal and/or contact information we will assist to make that update (our contact information is on the last page of the newsletter). We are happy to report there is a joint effort by all the service Secretaries, to the office of the Secretary of Defense, requesting that DMDC re-establishes the systems needed in order to support our effort to provide relevant benefits information to our retired Marines and their families. If this situation has affected you, we do apologize and ask for your continued patience as we work through this.

Thank you & Semper Fidelis

Steps to Take When an Annuitant Dies

ELIGIBILITY FOR SURVIVOR BENEFIT PLAN ANNUITY PAY ENDS WITH THE DEATH OF THE ANNUITANT (BENEFICIARY)

Prompt reporting of a deceased military annuitant’s death can help avoid delay and prevent possible financial hardship for the surviving family members or executors, who will be required to return any unearned payments of the decedent’s annuity pay if payment is erroneously received. While the VA does not provide burial benefits for annuitants, the annuitant may be eligible for burial in a military cemetery.

Follow these steps to report the death of an annuitant:

1. Call DFAS at 1-800-321-1080 to report the death and stop annuity pay.

2. Mail or fax a copy of the annuitant’s death certificate to:

DFAS - U.S. MILITARY ANNUITANT PAY
8899 E. 56th Street
Indianapolis, IN 46249-1300
Fax: 1-800-982-8459

3. Inform any financial institutions receiving payments about the death of the annuitant. (Provide a copy of the death certificate when it becomes available).

4. If applicable, contact the following agencies/departments immediately to report the death:

   • Social Security Administration: 1-800-772-1213  www.ssa.gov

   • Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System:
     1-800-538-9552

   • Department of Veterans Affairs: 1-800-827-1000 (annuitants in receipt of Dependency) and Indemnity

If you believe you are the victim of an error or injustice which affects your military record, you may apply for a Correction of Military Records by completing and submitting a DD Form 149, Application for Correction of Military Record. Examples of corrections include: upgraded discharge, promotions, retired pay, household goods, pay date change, bonus, and MGIB programs. DFAS pays military members when the Board for Corrections of Naval Records (BCNR) rule in their favor. If you received a decision from the BCNR and you do not agree with it, write the Board and explain your reasoning. Reference the appropriate address on page 2 of the DD Form 149. If you would like to check the status of your request contact the BCNR directly at (703) 604 - 6884 (Navy/Marine Corps). If you believe DFAS paid you incorrectly for your Correction of Record, provide documentation with a handwritten signature explaining why you are protesting the amount to:

DFAS-IN
Dept. 3330, Attn: COR/Claims
8899 East 56th Street
Indianapolis, IN 46249-3300
DFAS Inquiry Line: (317) 212-6167
(Hours: 8:30 am to 3:30 pm, EST)
Steps to Take When a Retired Marine Dies

1. REPORT THE DEATH TO DFAS at 1-888-332-7411 to stop retirement pay and avoid indebtedness. If the retired Marine was receiving pay from another source due to a disability from the VA or civil service retirement from the Office of Personnel Management, contact that agency to return the payment. If you fail to do this, you will have to repay it later.

You may also report the death online at www.dfas.mil/retiredmilitary/forms.html. Additional information from DFAS is available at www.dfas.mil/retiredmilitary/survivors/Retiree-death.html.

For families located overseas, the commercial number is 216-522-5955, select option 3 to be directed to the appropriate representative.

NOTE: DFAS will forward a confirmed death listing to Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps (MMSR-6) for inclusion in an upcoming issue of this newsletter under the TAPS column.

2. Within 7-10 business days after reporting the death to DFAS, you should receive a letter containing the following documents:

   a. SF1174 Claim for Unpaid Compensation of Deceased Member of the Uniformed Service
   b. Annuity account forms and instructions (if the decedent was enrolled in the Survivor Benefit Plan or the Retired Serviceman's Family Protection Plan)
   c. W-4P Withholding Certificate for Pension or Annuity Payments
   d. Direct Deposit form

Complete the forms you received with your letter and return them with a copy of the retiree’s death certificate that includes cause of death to:

Defense Finance and Accounting Service
U.S. Military Retired Pay
8899 E 56th Street
Indianapolis IN 46249-1200

If you need assistance completing your claim forms, please call 800-321-1080.

3. REPORT SURVIVOR BENEFIT PLAN ELECTION, if applicable. Designated annuitants will receive notification from DFAS if the deceased retired Marine elected SBP. If you are uncertain whether an election was made, call DFAS at 1-800-321-1080.

4. UPDATE YOUR MILITARY ID CARD. Your status has changed, and as the survivor of a deceased Marine, your ID card must be updated to reflect it due to the Marine’s death. Access your nearest ID site at https://idco.dmdc.osd.mil/idco or call HQMC (MMSR-6) at 1-800-336-4649 or (703) 784-9310 to obtain the sites closest to you.

5. NOTIFY THE SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION at 1-800-SSA-1213 (www.ssa.gov) to apply for the $255 death benefit, if applicable.

6. CONTACT THE VA at 1-800-827-1000 FOR BURIAL AND OTHER VA BENEFITS, such as VA disability payments. A copy of the sponsor’s DD 214 is required. Visit www.va.gov for more information.

7. CONTACT THE U.S. OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT at 1-888-767-6738 if the sponsor was receiving civil service pay.
