REPORT OF THE BOARD APPOINTED TO DETERMINE THE IDENTITY OF PERSONNEL WHO PARTICIPATED IN THE MT. SURIBACHI FLAG RAISING AS PHOTOGRAPHED BY MR. JOE ROSENTHAL OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

I. AUTHORITY.

2. The Board was convened by CMC ltr dated 4Dec46, 1240-10, DGA-1153-jg.

II. MATTER INVESTIGATED.

3. The Board met at 1300, 4 December, 1946, all members being present.

4. The convening order, hereto prefixed, was read and the Board decided upon following the usual procedure for an investigation.

5. The Board examined the following documents, attached as exhibits:

A. Copy of photograph taken by Mr. Joe Rosenthal of the Suribachi flag-raising on 23 February 1945.

B. Memorandum for Commandant of the Marine Corps from Director, Division of Public Information, dated 18 November, 1946, with enclosures (A) to (L).

C. Memorandum for Commandant of the Marine Corps from Director, Division of Public Information, dated 27 November, 1946, with one enclosure.

6. Consideration of all these documents, especially Enclosures A and B of Exhibit B (sworn statements of Mr. John H. Bradley and Mr. Rene Gagnon), supported a conclusion that the following men were the participants in the historical flag-raising atop Mt. Suribachi photographed by Mr. Joe Rosenthal on February 23, 1945:

> P.F.C. Franklin R. Sousely (942297) Sergeant Michael Strank (275228) P.F.C. Ira H. Hayes (448804)? P.F.C. Rene A. Gagnon (808276) Phar. Mate 2/c John H. Bradley (8681681) Sergeant Henry O. Hansen (266047)

> > - 1

7. In order to clear up the point as to whether or not the late Corporal Harlan H. Block (820595) was a participant as alleged in Enclosure (I) to Exhibit B (copy of letter from former P.F.C. Ira H. Hayes to Mrs. Block) the Board decided to submit written questionnaires to the following persons:

(1) Captain Dave Elliot Severence, USMC (011101), Commanding Officer of Company E, 2d Bn, 28th Marines, 5th Marine Division from March 1944 to August 1945.

(2) Captain Harold G. Shrier, USMC (019234), reported patrol-leader of the patrol which participated in subject flag-raising.

8. In addition, the Board decided that a member of the Board should interview former P.F.C. Ira H. Hayes, confronting him with the conflicting affidavits of the other two surviving participants of the flag-raising. The Board then adjourned.

9. The Board met at 1:00 p.m., 13 December, 1946, and all members of the Board were present. Lieutenant Colonel Sutter presented a statement concerning his interview of former P.F.C. Ira H. Hayes, along with two affidavits, an annotated photograph, and an annotated pamphlet obtained from Mr. Hayes -- all attached hereto, and marked as Exhibit D.

10. The Board examined the documents constituting Exhibit D and decided upon the following action:

(1) That Lieutenant Colonel E. Hagenah should be interviewed by the Board as soon as practicable.

(2) That Mr. Bradley and Mr. Gagnon should be informed of the contents of Exhibit D (contradictory affidavits from Mr. Ira H. Hayes) and be requested to comment.

(3) That a questionnaire be mailed to former Sergeant Thomas J. Hermanek, Jr., in order to verify statements made by Mr. Ira H. Hayes.

(4) That no contact with former Corporal Short nor P.F.C. Cotter was necessary because identification of Sergeant Henry O. Hansen in the Suribachi group picture was verified to the satisfaction of the Board using Sergeant Hansen's official record.

11. Several informal meetings were held between 13 December 1946 and 12 January 1947 in order to evaluate incoming correspondence and determine necessity for originating further inquiry.

12. The Board met at 10:30 a.m. on 13 January 1947; to consider all evidence recently obtained, including letters newly received from former P.F.C. Gagnon, former Phar. Mate 2/c Bradley, and former Corporal Thomas J. Hermanek, Jr. -- all enclosed and marked Exhibit "E".

13. After exhaustive analysis of all the evidence available, the Board decided that the investigation was complete, and that the evidence supported certain conclusions.

III. CONCLUSIONS.

14. That the figure shown on the extreme right (at foot of flag pole) in Mr. Joe Rosenthal's photograph of the Mt. Suribachi flag-raising has been incorrectly identified since April 8, 1945 as being Sergeant Henry 0. Hansen (266047), now deceased.

15. That, to the best of the ability of the Board to determine at this time, the above-mentioned figure is that of Corporal Harlan H. Block (820595), also deceased.

16. That the incorrect identification was caused by a combination of factors, which include:

(a) Mr. Joe Rosenthal's failure to take names of the participants because he believed the photograph to have been blurred by movement and consequently ruined.

(b) The fact that three of the six actual participants were killed in action prior to the initiation of inquiry into the identity of the participants.

(c) The reluctance of former P.F.C. Ira H. Hayes (448804) to be identified as a participant or to return to the United States at the time the first inquiry was made at Iwo Jima, in early April, 1945.

(d) That the original official identification was made in Washington with the help of Messrs. Bradley and Gagnon, both of whom were bystanders who merely helped the four-man patrol raise the flag.

(e) The need for haste in identifying the participants (in order that they be present for the 7th War Loan Drive) precluded a more thorough investigation originally.

IV. OPINION.

The Board unanimously agrees that as a result 17. of its investigation the following named men participated in the Mt. Suribachi flag-raising shown in the photograph taken by Mr. Joe Rosenthal of the Associated Press and that they appear as revealed on the accompanying annotated print:

> 1. Corporal Harlan H. Block (820595), deceased. 2. P.F.C. Rene A. Gagnon (808276). 3. Phar. Mate 2/c John H. Bradley (8681681). 4. Sergeant Michael Strank (275228), deceased. 5. P.F.C. Ira H. Hayes (448804). 6. P.F.C. Franklin R. Sousely (942297), deceased.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

18. That the records of Headquarters, U. S. Marine Corps be corrected to agree with the opinion of this Board -namely, that the name of Corporal Harlan H. Block (820595), deceased, be substituted for that of Sergeant Henry O. Hansen (266047), deceased, as identifying the figure on the extreme right (at the foot of the flag pole) in the subject photograph taken by Mr. Rosenthal.

That enclosures A, B, and C, letters informing 19. certain interested parties of this change in identification of one figure in the photograph, be signed by the Commandant of the Marine Corps and mailed prior to any public release of the information.

That no official blame be assessed any indi-20. vidual in the Naval Service because of the number and diversity of factors found to have been contributory to the original error.

P. A. del Valle, Major General, U. S. Marine Corps, President.

Dear Mr. Hansen:

This is in regard to the identification of the participants in the Mt. Suribachi flag-raising which occurred on the island of Iwo Jima on February 23, 1945, as it was photographed by Mr. Joe Rosenthal of the Associated Press.

COPY

On September 8, 1946, a letter was received from Mrs. E. F. Block (mother of Corporal Harlan H. Block, USMC, now deceased). Mrs. Block enclosed a letter written her by former Marine P.C.C. Ira H. Hayes, who is one of the three living participants of the subject flag-raising. Mr. Hayes stated that the figure shown on the extreme right (at foot of flag pole) and previously identified as the f figure of your son, Sergeant Henry O. Hansen, was in fact Corporal Harlan H. Block, new deceased.

I appointed a board of officers and directed that they investigate thoroughly all circumstances attendant to the taking of the photograph and the subsequent identification of personnel shown. The efforts of the board were directed toward determining the correct names of the six men who appear in the photograph.

Today, on January 15, 1947; I have the board's report before me and it finds the following six men are shown in the subject picture:

> Corporal Harlan H. Block (820595), deceased. P.F.C. Rene A. Gagnon (808276). Phar. Mate 2/o John H. Bradley (8681681). Sergeant Michael Strank (275228), deceased. P.F.C. Ira H. Hayes (448804). P.F.C. Franklin R. Sousely (942297), deceased.

The above list differs from the identification announced on April 7, 1945, in that Corporal Eleck's name has been substituted for that of your son's. The investigation established that the error arose from the fact that

ENCLOSURE (A)

Mr. Resenthal failed to obtain the names at the time he took the photograph because he believed it was not a successful one. Since both Sergeant Hansen and Corporal Block were present on Suribachi at the time and P.F.C. Hayes, only survivor of the four men sent to set up the flag, was reluctant to talk, the statements of Gagnon and Bradley were taken as the best evidence then available.

I wish to describe the thoroughness of the investigation which has just been completed:

- (1) A member of the board travelled to Phoenix, Arizona, and interviewed former P.F.C. Ira H. Hayes, the most competant living participant.
- (2)^A Questionnaires were sent to Captain Severance, Lieutenant Schrier, former Corporal Hermanek, and former P.F.C. Gagnon and Phar. Mate Bradley (the latter two being the only other living participants).
- (3) When all parties were cognizant of the details of P.F.C. Hayes' statement, they were either in complete agreement (as were Bradley and Hermanek) or unable to contradict it (as were Captain Severance, Lieutenant Schrier, and P.F.C. Gagnon).

I am personally convinced of the thoroughness and fairness which characterized this investigation, and I hope you will agree that, in fairness to all parties, the Marine Corps was obligated to correct the mistaken identification.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

/s/A. A. VANDEGRIFT, General, U.S.M.C., Commandant of the Marine Corps.

HEADQUARTERS U.S. MARINE CORPS WASHINGTON

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR, DIVISION OF PUBLIC INFORMATION, HEADQUARTERS, U. S. MARINE CORPS:

Subject:

Information leading to the definite identification of personnel in Mr. Joe Rosenthal's (AP) photograph, "Marines Raise Old Glory on Iwo Jima"; statement of E. R. Hagenah, Lieutenant Colonel, U. S. Marine Corps. BONDS

Enclosures:

- (A) Ltr fr PIO, 5th MarDiv to Dir, PubInfo, 19Apr45.
- (B) War Bond Tour of Survivors, Schedule.
- (C) Press release (8Apr45) by TSgt Keyes Beech.

1. In accordance with the request of the Director, the undersigned, after reviewing available records and files at Headquarters, U. S. Marine Corps, submits the following concerning his personal knowledge of events subsequent to 23 February, 1945, the date Mr. Bosenthal made his now-famous photograph on Mt. Surabachi during the assault of Iwo Jima.

2. On that date I was executive Officer, Division of Public Information, Headquarters, U. S. Marine Corps, having assumed that duty during September, 1944. Several days later (approximately 24 February) I first saw Rosenthal's picture when it appeared on the front page of the Washington Post. It had been radio-photoed from Guam to San Francisco and then wired to the Washington Bureau of the Associated Press. The picture caused tremendous favorable comment and I recall contacting the AP office in Washington, requesting prints and caption as everyone expressed interest in the names of the individuals pictured. This information was not available although we did receive prints.

About this time the first large batch of eye-witness stories of the operations, written by Marine Combat Correspondents were received at Headquarters. Also received, via officer messenger, were batches of action still photographs and the first motion-picture reels, all of which had to be processed and distributed to newspapers, and the newsreel companies. These duties taxed the personnel of the Division to capacity, resulting in day and night activity for a period of time. The publication of the action pictures, considered by press experts to be the best received of any combat operation to that date, resulted in a lack of interest in the details of the Rosenthal picture. But this lull was only temporary and about 15 March, when many news-magazines were planning to use the picture for covers and feature-pages, the demand for details was renewed. During this period the Director, Division of Public Information often regretted that the names of the men could not be obtained and even expressed a hope that, once identified, they could be made available for further photographing and interview. By this time requests for their return stateside were being received. This, of course, was not considered feasible as they had not yet been identified and the operation was still in progress. However, about this time, from a source I do not definitely recall although I believe it was from information relayed by a correspondent of the Leatherneck and from captions received with some motion-picture reels, a letter (Ltr AG-470-eig, 2065-85. 20Mar45) was rushed to the Public Information Officer, Fifth Marine Division, requesting positive identification of the personnel.

4. On or about 2 April, the Director, Brigadier General R. L. Denig, advised me that a dispatch (Marcorps Dis 292036) ordering stateside the Marine personnel known to have participated in the flag-raising picture, had been authorized by the Commandant. We later learned that this action was the result of a personal request by President Boosevelt, who considered their return and public appearance a public morale factor.

5. On Saturday, 7 April 1945, Private First Class RENE A. GAGNON reported in to Headquarters. According to his service record book, he had been transferred from Company "E", Second Battalion, Twenty-eighth Marines, Fifth Marine Division on 3 April. His travel from Pearl Harbor had been by air. Upon his arrival he was brought to the Director's office for the first of several periods of questioning concerning all facts and details, especially to secure the names of the other participants. The first vital question asked Gagnon was whether he had participated. His reply was affirmative and I then asked if he could identify himself, giving him an enlarged print of the Rosenthal picture. He said he had seen the picture before but that it had been a newspaper clipping and not very clear as to detail. After studying the picture for a few minutes Gagnon then pointed to two figures, saying he was certain he was either one or the other. Incidentally, his first choice, the figure on the far side (opposite Bradley) has never been questioned. I then asked Gagnon to name the others. He did so slowly, calling the names of Strank, Bradley, Sousely and Hansen. He pointed out that he had been sent up Mt. Surabachi with a new battery for a "walkie-talkie" and had given a hand when the new flag was ready to be put in place on the "long piece of Jap pipe." He added he knew all the men well and that Bradley was "a Corpsman".

6. Realizing that Gagnon had only named four men which, including himself, only totaled five, whereas a close study of the picture revealed that there were six, I asked him to give me the names again, only this time to jot them down. I handed him a pencil and pièce of scrap paper. He wrote: Strank, Bradley, Sousely and Hansen. At my suggestion he then added his own, a total of five. It was then I asked him for the name of the sixth man, pointing out with a pencil the six figures. Gagnon studied the photograph closely for several minutes finally admitting that there were six in the picture. I again asked for the name of the sixth man but Gagnon only stared down at the picture. Finally, after further questioning, he said that he knew the sixth man but could not name I asked why? After some further hesitation him. Gagnon said that he had promised not to give his name as the man did not want to be identified,

Gagnon was visibly upset and realizing that he was fresh from combat, nervous and under a strain, I reasoned slowly and deliberately with him, insisting however that he would have to name the other man due to the many factors connected with the picture, especially his return stateside under orders. Sometime later Gagnon very reluctantly said that the sixth man was "an Indian" and that he was known as "the Chief"; his name was Hayes, Private First Class IRA H. HAYES, Company "E", Second Battalion, Twenty-eighth Regiment, Fifth Marine Division.

During the afternoon of 7 April, while obtaining the names of the other men, Gagnon reported that of the six, three had been killed later. These he listed as Sousley, Strank and Hansen. Also that Corpsman Bradley had been wounded in the leg. Ι checked immediately with the Officer in Charge, Headquarters, Casualty Section and was informed that reports had been received on Stank and Hansen as KIA, that their next of kin had been notified, but as no report had been received concerning Sousely, his name, could not be released in any press story. However, as it was most desirable that a release be made as early as possible, the Casualty Section agreed to accept an affidavit by Gagnon concerning Sousley's death and positive identification prior to burial. A copy of this affidavit (dated 7 April) is in Public Information file "Iwo Jima Flag". Following further questioning and there being no need for him to remain in Washington until Bradley and Hayes arrived, Gagnon was granted liberty and left for his mother's home in Manchester, N. H., late that evening.

The next day, Sunday, 8 April, with the approval of the Director, Technical Sergeant Keyes Beech, a Marine Combat Correspondent, who returned a few days prior to Gagnon as one of five correspondents ordered stateside to write a "popular priced book" (The Marines on Iwo Jima) a project approved by Headquarters, prepared the first press release. Beech had landed and covered the operations of the Twentyeighth Marines and knew many men in "E" Company. Gagnon's affidavit on Sousely had been acted upon but twenty-four hours had to elapse before any release could be made so the Beech story, the first on the survivors and those killed, was distributed "for immediate release" at approximately 1700 on 8 April, the undersigned personally driving Beech to the various press association offices.

Early Monday, 9 April, with the approval of the Director, who had directed me to handle all details concerning the project in addition to my other duties, I requested that Hayes be ordered to Headquarters. This was approved and Marcorps dispatch dated 9 April was sent to Commanding General, Fifth Marine Division. To the best of my knowledge, I also on that date notified the Bureau Medicine and Surgery that Bradley, the Corpsman, was a participant. Later they requested that Bradley be included in any honors to be accorded Gagnon and Hayes and his return to Bethesda Naval Hospital was authorized. Also on that date the AP stated they were immediately releasing the original Rosenthal photo revealing the participants with identification arrows.

10. On 19 April, Private First Class Hayes reported in to Headquarters. A check of his service record book shows that he was transferred 15 April by air. Bradley also arrived about this time.

11. In the meantime the War Bond Division of the U.S. Treasury, learning from the press that the survivors were being returned to the states, requested their services for a coast-to-coast tour of the country. This was approved and Mr. Ted Gamble, the Director of the War Savings Division, called to advise me that Gagnon, Hayes and Bradley would be received by the President (Truman, as President Roosevelt had died on 12 April) at the White House on 20 April. Gagnon was recalled from Manchester and he met Hayes in General Denig's office on either 18 or 19 April. Hayes was sullen at first although I learned later that he "forgave" Gagnon for revealing his identity. Bradley, Hayes and Gagnon were photo-graphed as a group and individually, there being a heavy demand for press pictures of them.

12. Upon Hayes' arrival he was immediately questioned and confirmed the names of those given earlier by Gagnon. He did make one major correction. That concerned the identification by position of three men in the picture. We had originally spotted him at the far left as the figure with the poncho on his back. He insisted that he never carried a poncho but that he always carried a Carbine, such as the figure second from the left. It was then agreed, after some discussion that the figure with the poncho must be Sousley. Moreover, Hayes identified Bradley as the man with the Corpsman's kit and pistol, whereas we had been reluctant to agree that Corpsmen carried sidearms and had marked Bradley on the far side with hands just showing.

13. Upon Bradley's return I met him at the Washington Airport. He immediately agreed that the men named were in the picture and stated that he knew them all well. He, too, identified himself as in the center foreground and reluctantly admitted carrying sidearms.

Early on the morning of 20 April, I 14. escorted the three men, Bradley (on crutches due to foot and leg wounds) Hayes and Gagnon, to Mr. Gamble's office in the Washington Building where a huge press conference had been arranged. The three were questioned in great detail and at length. Following the conference the group crossed to the Treasury to meet the Secretary, Mr. Morgenthau, who later escorted them to the White House to meet the President who was preparing to open the 7th War Loan drive by receiving them and accepting, as symbolic of the drive, a painting of the photograph by Mr. C. C. Beall, nationally-known artist. Later that day I took the three men to the U.S. Capitol for lunch. News of their presence spread and they were taken to the Reception Room to meet their Senators, then they were escorted to the floor of the United States Senate where they were introduced individually to the entire Senate membership who filed past them. Following that the three men were introduced at a private luncheon being given by the Speaker of the House, Mr. Sam Rayburn, to members of the House. Later they joined the Congressional party attending the opening ball game at Griffith Stadium where, standing as a trio at home-plate, they were accorded a tremendous welcome by 35,000 fans. Following the activities of 20 April, Hayes requested and was given liberty and, as I recall, flew to his home in Arizona. I believe Bradley also returned to Manchester.

15. About 26 April, in reply to the request of 20 March, identification of Marine personnel in Rosenthal's photograph was received by the Director. The letter, from the Public Information Office, Fifth Marine Division, dated 19 April (Enclosure A) stated that identification had been made from an enlargement of a lomm motion picture sequence photographed by Marine Combat Photographer, Sergeant William Genaust, later KIA.

16. On or about 8 May, Hayes, Gagnon and Bradley returned to Washington preparatory to starting out on the nation-wide Bond Tour scheduled to open in New York on 11 May. Complete schedule (Enclosure B). During their appearance in Philadelphia the men visited the Quartermaster Depot where their summer service was tailored. On this Bond Tour and upon request of the U. S. Treasury, the three men were accompanied by Technical Sergeant Keyes Beech, who acted as guide, adviser and NCO in charge.

On 15 May, during a routine telephone 17. check on arrangements, Beech rather reluctantly advised me that "the Chief", as he called him, was "not happy", appeared "confused" and, when in these "moods", was troublesome. As Hayes was in an adjoining room, I requested to talk with him. He said he didn't "go for all the fuss being made over him" but assured me he would "do better". This was repeated again on 22 May, when the party was in Detroit. Several days later Haves was ordered back to the Fifth Marine Division on NTX orders from Headquarters to Officer in Charge, Central Procurement Division, departing by commercial air the night of 24 May. On 25 May, Hayes departed San Francisco by air for Pearl Harbor. The others, Gagnon and Bradley, accompanied by Beech, completed the tour which closed in Washington at a huge rally, 4 July 1945. On 5 July, Gagnon was ordered to Camp Pendleton with 10 days' delay and 5 days' travel time. Bradley returned to the U. S. Naval Hospital, Bethesda. The undersigned was ordered to the West Coast on 22 June 1945, later proceeding directly to the Pacific and upon completing assigned mission in Japan, returned stateside, resuming duties at Headquarters on 28 September 1945.

18. Knowledge that Hayes in a letter to the deceased Marine's family, recently published in the press, had stated that the figure on the far right of the Rosenthal picture is Private First Class HARDAN BLOCK, later KIA, and not that of Sergeant Henry O. Hansen, came as a distinct shock to the undersigned.

At no time do I recall Harlan Block being mentioned in any of the many conversations with either Bradley. Hayes, Gagnon or Beech. To the best of my recollection I have never heard of Block in any discussions concerning definite identification of the figures, nor have I seen Block's name in any printed matter or correspondence, either personal or official until I read a copy of Hayes' letter to the Block family, excerpts of which were printed in the recent press story. Following the publication of Hayes' statements to the Block family the story was handled by the United Press, and one of their Washington men called upon me for additional data or for confirmation or denial. Unable to confirm or deny Hayes' statement, I outlined the situation in some detail to the UP reporter who finally stated that he failed to see how Hayes could make such charges in the light of what facts were available at Headquarters.

19. On 22 September, personally concerned with Hayes' letter and charges, the undersigned telephoned Bradley at his home in Milwaukee. As he was not at home I was relayed to his business office although it was Sunday. Bradley, who had not seen or even heard of the letter to the Blocks, expressed surprise that Hayes should make any such statement. He was certain that Block was on Mt. Surabachi that morning but that he was not in the Rosenthal picture. Bradley stated that he was still certain that the figure placing the pipe in the pile of stones at far right was Sergeant Henry O. Hansen. Moreover, Bradley said that upon request he would forward a written statement to that effect.

20. The undersigned desires to state that the above is related to the best of his knowledge and that due to the pressure of events during and since his personal contacts with the survivors that certain facts may not be in proper order or that others may unintentionally have been omitted. He does wish to again state that in any or all of his many discussions with the survivors or of the event with others he does not recall hearing, reading or speaking the name of Harlan Block.

Respectfully,

E. R. HAGENAH Lieutenant Colonel, U.S. Marine Corps

Dear Mr. West:

Your letter dated September 7, directed to the Commandant, with enclosures, relative to the possibility of Mr. Block's son having been a participant in the Iwo Jima flag raising, has been received.

The identification of the group was made with care at the time the photograph attracted such wide attention. It is felt, however, that the belated statement of one of the survivors, Ira H. Hayes, merits re-examination in view of its importance to the family of E. F. Block. A thorough investigation of the case will be made and you will be advised of the findings as soon as practicable.

In this connection, I have to advise that due to discharge of practically all personnel involved, the investigation will doubtless reouire a considerable time.

Thanking you for your interest and with sincere respects to Mr. Block, I am

Sincerely yours,

A. H. TURNAGE, Major General, U.S.M.C. Commandant of the Marine Corps Acting

The person in question in Joe Rosenthal's Flag Raising Picture, namely Henry O. Hansen as pictured on the back page of mr. Honser could have done just that. The crossed bardoleers I am quite certain he usually had with him in case he needed extra amkinition. The paraente boots & remember he always wore. The man ides tifiel as Hansen on the picture could possibly be wearing them. as for the utility cap. many of the men wore These caps upder their helpets. If you will refer to the picture at the backlef Rosenthals book you will see I have marked the men hope have on helmet & utility cap both. now that I have studied this picture 2 am inclined to agree with Ira Hayes That it is not Housen. you see Haffes should remember better than I about B lock because he says, Strants, Sousely, Block and himself came up The Mit. for that purpose. 2. At the time the picture was taken I was buy taking down the original flag, and can not definitely identify any members.

Gorporal Harlan H, Block was a member of the patrol that captured Shribachi but his whereabouts at the time of the subject picture 1 am not qualified to say as I had placed different fire teams in security positions and have ho knowledge as to which fire team Corporal Block was attached.

Gagnon, Hayes, and Strank were not members of the original patrol. They were sent to the top of the mountain with supplies from Battalion Headquarters after Suribachi had been secured. As there was a number of personall not members of my organization on the scene; at the time the subject picture was taken I do not feel that I am qualified to make a sworn statement.

Commencer Effice april 7.1947 NOTARY PUHLIO

10 December 1946,

I, Ira Hamilton Hayes, desire to make the following statement concerning the men who participated in the Suribachi flag raising on 23 February 1945 as shown in the picture taken by Mr. Joe Rosenthal:

First, the six men present at the time and shown in the picture are as shown on the attached affidavit over my signature.

Secondly, proof exists that Sgt. Henry O. Hansen (226407) could not be the persen claimed at the foot of the flag pole (numbered "5" on the attached photograph (because Sgt. Hansen was dressed at that time in Marine parachute boots, cloth patrol cap, and was wearing crossed bandoleers over his shoulders. He habitually wore these boots with trousers tucked in, having been a parachuxtest in the 3rd Marine Parachute Bn. My statement on Sgt. Hansen's uniform can be verified by reference to a pamphlet entitled "Iwo Jima" by Joe Rosenthal. On the back cover is a picture of Sgt. Hansen dressed as I have stated, and I have indicated on the picture which is Sgt. Hansen. This picture was taken by Mr. Rosenthal about two minutes after the flag raising picture on 23 February 1945.

Thirdly, I endeavored to tell Lt. Colonel Hagenah at Marine Corps Headquarters that Sgt. Hansen was int in the picture and Corporal Block was the one shown at the base of the pole in the flag raising picture. He told me at that time that I was to keep quiet about this because the men had already been identified publicly and the Bond Drive was to begin. He said that it didnt matter so much since both men were degeased (Corporal Block and Sgt, Hansen).

Fourth, Mrs Block wrote to me that other former Marines out of "E" Company had written to her telling that her son was present and in the flag raising picture and that I was the one who could prove it.

Fifth, PFC. Donald Short and PFC. William Cotter can identify Sgt. Hansen in the group picture. Sgt. Thomas Hermirick of Chicago, can identify Block as the man at the base of the flag pole in the picture because he was there at the time and knew him well,

Last, in discussing Block's presence with the other survivors, Gagnon and Bradley, they admitted it might have been Block to me, but were'nt sure. Bradley and Gagnon were not in the patrol of four of us who went up Suribachi to raise the large flag. They were already up on the mountain when our four-man patrol arrived at the top. Our patrol was led by Sgt. Strank and included Corporal Block, PFC. Sousely and myself.

NO. DAILY EXCEPT SU

Any knowledge I possess concerning identification of the men in the Rosenthal picture of the flag raising on Mount Suribachi is based on hearsay. Although I was attached to the 28th harines, which outfit captured Mount Suribachi, I was not present when the picture was takan. Several days later, when newspaper chippings of the picture reached Iwo Jima, I want to lat. It. Harold G. Schrier, who lad the first patrol to reach the top of Suribachi, in an effort to identify the men. With the help of Schrier and FFO Rene A. Gagnon I identifyed five men, left to right, as follows: PFC Trenklin Sousley, Sgt. Michael Strenk; Hospital Corpsman John H. Bradley, PFC Gagnon and Sgt. Henry O. Hansen, It was not until my return to Marine Corps headult the the flagt men in the picture. FFC Gagnon, who also had been returned to the Schles, then, in the presence of Lt. Col. F. R. Hagenah and myself schlethe with bodily harm if he revealed that he (Tayes) was one of the men in the picture. This was subsequently confirmed by Hayes! own statement. Under Gagnon's new identification Hayes took the place of Strank as the second man from the left and Strank become the man whose upraised hands rise at Hayes ! left. In an effort to establish positive identification a meeting was held at Estnesda naval hospital at which Cel, Hagenah, Hayes, Bradley and Gagnon, in addition to myself, were present. It was then agreed by the three survivors, Hayes, Bradley and Gagnon, that?
